

Archie loves to tell jokes. What's your best joke?

Design a Laughometer to measure how funny you are and test it out with others in your class. Perhaps you could make a class Joke Book - you might even be able to sell some copies to raise money for a charity working with homeless people.